

Thomas Bojko, MD, MS, JD, FCLM

Thomas Bojko, MD, MS, JD, FCLM is President and Managing Partner of Aviva Healthcare Solutions (AHCS) and Founding Partner of Thomas & Krail, LLC. AHCS is a consulting firm assisting healthcare organizations, entrepreneurs, attorneys and medical groups. AHCS provides a variety consulting services for the US and global healthcare market, including: litigation support, assisting foreign healthcare companies to access the US market, accreditation guidance and fostering international facility cooperation. Hospital Experts – a business unit of AHCS, is the leading authority on hospital corporate negligence. Thomas & Krail, LLC is a law firm focusing on general practice in Freehold, NJ.

Dr. Bojko has spent over two decades in healthcare where he has held both clinical and executive leadership positions in hospital and medical administration. Most recently, he was the Executive Director of Kimball Medical Center in Lakewood, NJ. Prior to that, he was the Director of Medical Services and Clinical Operations at the Bristol-Myers Squibb Children's Hospital / Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, as well as an Associate Professor and Senior Vice Chair for Clinical Affairs, Department of Pediatrics, UMDNJ-Robert Wood Johnson Medical School. Before assuming his positions at Robert Wood Johnson, Dr. Bojko was the Director of Critical Care Medicine at the Infants and Children's Hospital at Maimonides Medical Center. He is also the former Director of the pediatric intensive care unit at the Brooklyn Hospital Center and at Bellevue Hospital, both in New York City.

In addition to his Medical Degree, received from the University of Rome, Dr. Bojko received a Master of Science Degree in Health Care Administration, Management and Policy from New York University's Robert. F. Wagner School of Public Service, and a Juris Doctor degree from Rutgers University School of Law.

Dr. Bojko has made many contributions to the administrative, clinical and educational aspects of healthcare and received numerous awards in recognition of his efforts. During his more than ten-year tenure at Robert Wood Johnson, Dr. Bojko was charged with the overall operations of the Children's Hospital. He gained national prominence serving as a member of the American Academy of Pediatrics Section on Critical Care Executive Committee and as a member of the NACHRI (National Association of Children's Hospitals) Board of Trustees. Dr. Bojko is currently a Clinical Associate Professor at Robert Wood Johnson Medical School. In addition, he has authored numerous articles, policy statements and editorials in peer-reviewed journals.

Dr. Bojko has held statewide offices in New Jersey as the chair of the State AGMEC (Advisory Graduate Medical Education Council), and as a member of the Board of Directors of the Medical Society of New Jersey.